one ship drives east and another west with the self-same winds that blow.
'tis the set of the sails and not the gales which tell us the way to go.

—ella wheeler wilcox

—shakespeare

i was a fighter, so—one fight more.
the best and last!
i would hate that death bandaged
my eyes and forbore,
and bade me creep past.

if you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue, or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch, if neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you, if all men count with you, but none too much;
if you can fill the unforgiving minute
with sixty seconds run, yours is the earth and everything that's in it,
and—which is more—you'll be a man, my son!
