1985 OWL

Hoosac School

Hoosick, New York

EDITOR: JOHN DOOLEY, ADVISER: RICHARD LOMUSCIO
STAFF: Students and Faculty of Hoosac School

In Memory of Jack Tuck

Dedication

The 1985 edition of the Owl is dedicated to the memory of Jack Tuck. He was Chairman of the Board of Trustees and worked tirelessly to better the community of Hoosac School. His untimely death was a shock to all who knew him. Jack's love and dedication to Hoosac will never be forgotten.

Headmaster's Greeting

Mrs. Wright and I send our warmest good wishes to the class of '85. Thank you for your friendship and kindness to us this year. Please come back and visit when you can. A warm welcome awaits you on the campus any time.

I hope you all find great success of the spirit, remembering the best dreams of your youth. If you find material success as well, remember to contribute generously to you-know-what school.

I liked Father Darwin Kirby's remark to you at the Missionary Service. "Never give up . . . never, never, never, NEVER!"

“There is a way of living that has a certain grace and beauty. It is not a constant race for what is next, rather, an appreciation of what has come before . . . There is a respect for quality, a recognition of what is truly meaningful. These are the feelings I would like my work to inspire. This is the quality of life that I believe in.”

Ralph Lauren

Austin P. McGrath III

Kathy Barnard

"Let life as it reaches out to you, give you all the new experiences made easier by the old experiences of the past. Do not forget who you are, to become another person's wish, dream or desire.

"Be who you are, and cry if you must, openly.

"Allow no one to rob you of the personal touch you learned to activate your feelings and decisions.

"Only play the games you learned were your games, and get out of those whose rules do not apply to you. You cannot lose with yourself. No one has the rights or wrongs of making you happy for the rest of your life. Your life will only be happy if you first fulfill your own needs, instilling your own happiness, even when others would have you unhappy or alone.

"There are no reasons you should ever have to be alone, so don't be. You don't have the time. Do not look upon other people's faces and hold yourself responsible because they are not smiling.

"Let your smile recognize them as parts of your being, but remain your own reflection.

"Let yourself find peace with the beginning of every new adventure.

"Again and again and again, grow.

"Life is once only."

“The experimentation of lifestyle is at its peak always, mixing the old with the new, being as conservative as you like, throwing as many patterns and colors together as you dare. And most importantly, forming your own individual style*”

Kent Suzuki

Form VI — Yearbook

“Some are born to move the world
to live their fantasies
But most of us just dream about the things we'd like to do.
Sadder still, to watch it die,
then never to have known it,
For you, the blind, who once could see,
The bell tolls for thee . . .” Rush

“I think . . . I think I am . . . therefore I must be . . .
There ya go, keep as cool as ya can,
Face miles of trials with smiles,
It rials them to believe you perceive the web they weave.” Moody Blues “Won't you look down upon me Jesus,

You've gotta help me make a stand,
You've gotta see me through another day . . .
I won't make it any other way.” James Taylor

Cheryl Hack

Mom and Dad: “Don't you ever ask them why
'cause if they told you, you would cry
just look at them
and sigh
'cause you know
they love you.”
