HOOSAC SCHOOL
2001

As Robert Frost wrote:

*Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;
Then took the other, just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,
And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day:
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.
I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I -
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.*

To Kyra: Thank you for teaching me personal restraint.

To Desiray: Thank you for being the only compassionate person at this school when I came in my sophomore year. We should go to a country fair sometime.

To Tiffany: Don't worry, I hold no grudge against you even though Natalie is your sister. Good luck in the future.

To Jontia: No! Jontia YOU MAY NOT SQUEEZE MY CHEEKS! It is not funny and I do not appreciate this. What. WHAT?? Get away from me! But seriously, thank you for being one of the few real people at this school. Your friendship was a great relief from the rigors of Hoosac. I admire you for treating people the way I wish I could treat them, with honesty, equality, and humbleness. I know you will be happy and successful. Good luck.

To Tom: Sorry that I won't be with you at school next year. I'll see you at the MCLA orientation anyway. So I'll see you this summer to resolve our unfinished business.

To Suji: No! YOU MAY NOT COME INTO THE TUCK SHOP! I had a fun time with you this year. Thank you for being a voice of reason to me at times. I will miss our conversations and hilarious vocabulary quiz times before Ethics class. Good Luck in the future.

To Matt: For when you are a famous musician, I fully expect you to write a profound song about our perpendicular experiences at Hoosac. Anyhow, good luck in the future and don't be surprised to see me at a concert one day.

To Alicia: Sorry if I scared you with my strange sense of humor. Thanks for being a real person. I wish we had had more time to become friends but C'est la vie. I hope we meet up again in the future. Thanks and good luck for the future.

To the current and incoming 8th graders at Hoosac: I am pleased to be presenting your class with a gift next year. I will be purchasing your class a lovely gift of a new wooden playpen and a set of building blocks and dolls to keep you occupied.

To Willy: Don't get too close to the pond.

To my family: Thank you for helping me survive high school and keeping me in check. I appreciate all that you have done for me. I love you.

To My Teachers: Thanks for putting up with me for so long. I promise I won't come back to work here.

To Ms. Mac and Mr. Cochran: Thanks for entertaining my academic interests and for doing me all those favors; I greatly appreciate it. You actually kept me interested in school, which really helped me through it. I'll stay in touch. Thanks.

To Terry: So long and thanks for all the fish.

HOOSAC WOULDN'T HAVE BEEN THE SAME WITHOUT YOU...

DAD, MOM, & ASH... I can't thank you enough for everything that you have done for me... for your support and love while I was so far away.

MY FRIENDS AT HOME... Thanks for your support and encouragement while I've been away. I really missed you guys!

SHANA... (I'm just saying all this to make you feel nice... I don't mean a thing I'm gonna say!) You made my life at Hoosac worth living. I'm so glad I got to know such a wonderful person as you. You were always there when I needed you... to listen to my problems, to cheer me up. If you ever need to talk, remember that you can always count on me. Call me whenever you need me. (you know 'where' I'll be... Adam's! Hey Adam... stay in touch... always) Thanks for being a great friend. Good luck in whatever you do. Love you tons! I'll miss you. (PS... don't ever take anything as seriously as you do... especially not my first sentence!)

IDAHO... aka Jordan. You're a great kid and I'm glad I know you. You've been a great friend (and also a great pain). I enjoyed working with you on the newspaper (especially arguing and fighting). Good luck for the next two years here. Let me know how you're doing. Just don't stress out as much as you do now and live like a 16-year old. Have fun at Oxford. There's one last thing I have to say... I'm still going to be smarter than you!

JOEL... I'm so glad to have you as a friend. I really enjoyed teaching you pre-calc and just hanging out... the best part being the Friendly's chocolate fribble. Thanks for everything.

CAFUA, T-BO, STAVROS & CARLO... the Canadian crew! Thanks for making my first year here a great one. I really enjoyed my time with you guys... especially the hockey. Cafua... thanks for being a great friend and for listening to me when I needed to talk. Don't worry too much about life; take it one day at a time. Keep in touch with me always and do well in whatever you do. Good luck with Hockey and everything else. T-bo... remember our bet?! and thanks for the flowers. Stavros... Thanks for you-know-what... and I'm still going to have 'hamburgers without meat!'

JUSTIN... Thanks for being a great friend. I'm glad I got to know you, though so late. Stay in touch. I'll miss you.

ANDY... Good luck at the 'cheese' university, Lawrence (the 'best' college acceptance!...better than Vanderbilt huh!). I really enjoyed spending time with you.

STEVE... Take care of Shana for me next year. Good luck with everything!

CHARLES... Have fun at college. I had a really nice time with you this year. Stay in touch.

TIFFANY... the 'geek' army girl! Thanks for being a great friend. Good luck in that, and keep in touch.

DANNIELLE... It was great having you in the dorm the last few months. I had a wonderful time with you. Take care of yourself and have fun. Stay in touch... always!

JONTIA... It was fun working with you this year. Good luck at college, and stay in touch.

PROPHETE... Thanks for being there for me this year. Stay in touch always.

NICOLE... Thanks for helping me (with you-know-who) in the bus on the way back from the mall. :) Good luck for your senior year.

HICKEY, JOYAL, KELLY... I had great fun with you guys. Good luck in whatever you do.

LINDSAY... Thanks for being a great friend my first year here. Good luck and have fun!

MCCULLOUGH... You guys have been a great dorm. I really had fun with all of you. Oh yeah... thanks for 'corrupting' me. Anyway, good luck and have fun!

TO EVERYONE ELSE... I'm glad to know everyone at Hoosac. I really enjoyed my two years here. Goodbye and Good luck!

TO MY TEACHERS...

MR. & MRS. SPAHN... Thanks for making my first year away from home so wonderful, and for making me feel at home. It was great having you guys as dorm parents. Mr. Spahn... I'll always be India's #1 hockey fan!

MR. AMSTERDAM... I enjoyed having you as a teacher and learning from you, and of course, working on the newspaper. Thanks for everything.

MR. B... I can't thank you enough for everything you've done for me. I really appreciate it all! I loved having you as a teacher.

Thank you for being there for me through thick and thin. I love you more than words can say. I want to thank my dad for being supportive and helping me through all my problems. You are kind in heart. I love you very much. And to my sisters, Natalie and Amanda, I guess have to admit I love you.

"Live everyday as your last."

Never Enough
Sometimes I know the words to say,
Give thanks for all you've done,
But then they fly up and away,
As quickly as they come.

How could I possibly thank you enough?
The one who makes me whole,
The one to whom I owe my life,
The forming of my soul.

The one who tucked me in at night,
The one who stopped my crying,
The one who was the expert,
At picking up when I was lying.

The one who saw me off to school,
And spent sad days alone,
Yet magically produced a smile,
As soon as I came home.

The one who made such sacrifices,
To always put me first,
Who lets me test my broken wings,
In spite of how it hurts.

Who paints the world a rainbow,
When it's filled with broken dreams,
Who explains it all so clearly,
When nothing's what it seems.

Are there really any words for this?
I find this question tough...
Anything I want to say,
Just doesn't seem enough.

What way is there to thank you,
For your heart, your sweet, your tears,
For ten thousand little things you've done,
For oh-so-many years.

For changing with me as I changed,
Accepting all my flaws,
Not loving 'cause you had to,
But loving "just because."

For never giving up on me,
When your wits had reached their end,
For always being proud of me,
For being my best friend.

And so I came to realize,
The only way to say,
The only thank you that's enough,
Is clear in just one way.

Look at me before you,
See what I've become,
Do you see yourself in me?
The job that you have done?

All your hopes and all your dreams,
The strength that no one sees,
A transfer over many years,
Your best was passed to me.

Thank you for the gifts you give,
For everything you do,
But thank you, Mommy, most of all,
For making dreams come true.

Love,
Your Daughter

Dean Foster: Thank you for "all of this". It really wouldn't have happened without you! I truly hope your marriage will be the best, and oh ya, in case I didn't get to the wedding, picture me in your head, throwing rice or something over your heads as you both walked out of the ceremony together!

Foster: Thank you for getting me into Lawrence. Without your help I'd still be lost.

Carlo: You were one of my best line mates ever, and I enjoyed every game. We should've won that 3-3 tournament, but what can ya do? I know we'll run into each other at least once in the college ranks. So until then...

Stavros: Wasn't that a fun trip to Colorado? Though I won the $20 bet the second day of practice (5 out of 9) you're still a great goalie and friend.

Cafua: It's your job to hold down the team next year. We had lots of laughs this year and I'll have to give you a call next time I'm in Montreal. Lead the boys to victory next year.

Steve: I couldn't have asked for a better roommate.

Yuti: Have fun at Vanderbilt next year. If only you studied a little harder maybe you could've gotten into Lawrence, you know I'm kidding. It was a fun year, and we have to keep in touch in the future, just don't pick up the southern accent.

Tiffany: BB&N was fun, but don't you wish you could've eaten a delicious D'Angelo's sub? Anyway, I'm really glad we became friends, and I never had a dull moment when we hung out. You better visit me in Wisconsin.

To the Hoosac School: Though at times I felt that I didn't belong here, I had fun, and I got to where I wanted to go in the end, and that's what really matters. Form VI

To my parents:

Thanks for giving me a chance to study at Hoosac school. I'll never forget your love and your concern for me.

My first time in America was September 5, 2000 and my parents sent me to Hoosac school to study as a Junior. After studying really hard, I jumped a level and became a Senior and will graduate this year. During the year I also played sports. In the fall I played Varsity Soccer, the winter I played Varsity Basketball, and in the spring I played Lacrosse.

I really enjoyed this year at Hoosac, I'll never forget my teachers, my friends, and my second mom Mary. They helped me a lot and took care of me. I just want to say thanks a lot.

Dad, Mom thanks again for giving this great life to me; I'll love you forever!

Your son, Jia Heng Sui
