Headmaster's Greeting

Dear Members of the Class of 2013,

First and foremost, Congratulations!

I am so very proud of all of you and the great things you have accomplished here at Hoosac School. Your hard work and dedication have helped you succeed and accomplish what is by no means an easy task, earning your diploma from Hoosac School.

You should be proud of yourself and your class; the effort that you have put forth has laid the groundwork for the rest of your life. You now have a foundation on which you can build not only a successful college career, but also a successful life. Take the lessons that you have learned in the classroom, on the athletic fields, the dining hall, or anywhere you had a Hoosac experience and use them to make good decisions.

Work to better yourself each and every day.

I leave you with just one phrase, often spoken, but rarely followed, "Carpe diem quam minimum credula postero" -Horace

The generally accepted translation of the first two words is, "Seize the day," but I have included the rest of the line, which means "for the future is not known." This is not a call to ignore the future, rather an insistence that your future can be shaped by your actions today.

Shape your future well.

I have all the confidence in the world that you will continue to grow and learn and I look forward with great expectation to word of your future successes.

Thank you for the opportunity to help you move forward. Stay in touch. Remember, you are now, and will be forever a part of Hoosac.

Sincerely,

Dean S. Foster

Louis: After spending one year and two months together, I realize how much I need you. However, we have to continue our life seperately now. But this doesn't mean an end to us. I won't give up, and I hope you won't give up as well. Please remember how hard we tried to understand each other, and how valuable these past days were. Work hard and get in a nice college. I will always be waiting for you.

Rocher: Hey! My love! College life is waiting for us! Although I'm not going to the same school as you, we could still spend our vacations in Shanghai! I know I put you on the second place sometimes, but I believe you can understand how much I value the limited time I can spend with him. Without you, my life here would be boring and lonely. Again, congratulations for being admitted by your dream school! No matter how hard the life is, we have to live it up!

Alice: I can't stop laughing when I typed in your English name! Thanks for your comfort when I cried. I always relaxed when I was with you, because I regard you as one of the people who could understand me and my interests well. Playing with bobcat, having food secretly during fifth period, and watching movies, we enjoyed our last year in Hoosac together. See you in Shanghai!

Sofia, Sandy, Maggie, Karenna, Jasmine Laura, and Xixi: My loves! Thanks for sharing happiness with me! I will miss you! Seniors, congratulations! Juniors, fight for senior year! ^_^

Amy, Vivian, Karen and Linda: I love you! You are so helpful, especially Karen! ;p

Ode to the West Wind
If I were a dead leaf thou mightest bear;
If I were a swift cloud to fly with thee;
A wave to pant beneath thy power, and share

The impulse of thy strength, only less free
Than thou, O uncontrollable! If even
I were as in my boyhood, and could be

The comrade of thy wanderings over Heaven,
As then, when to outstrip thy skiey speed
Scarce seem'd a vision; I would ne'er have striven

As thus with thee in prayer in my sore need.
Oh, lift me as a wave, a leaf, a cloud!
I fall upon the thorns of life! I bleed!

A heavy weight of hours has chain'd and bow'd
One too like thee: tameless, and swift, and proud.
